

“Teaching methodologies for engineering students-a new perspective” - 8.3.2014

---

The Department of Electronics and Instrumentation Engineering took pride in celebrating the first year anniversary of International Society of Automation on March 8th, 2014 at Jeppiaar Engineering College. The function was held in the presence of Mrs. Regeena Jeppiaar, Director of Jeppiaar Engineering College, our Principal of Science and Engineering Dr. Sushil Lal Das, our Principal of Management Studies Dr. Thangavel and Dr.Sathiyabama Head of Electronics and Instrumentation department. The chief guest was Mrs. Rajammal who is a well renowned motivational speaker and a President Awardee. The celebration was followed by a motivational session for students and a faculty development program on “Teaching methodologies for engineering students-a new perspective”

---

CERTIFICATE DISTRIBUTION:

The prize winners of various events conducted in the year 2013-2014 was awarded with certificates. The prize winners for JUMP 2k13 and best manager was awarded with certificates by our Director Mrs. Regeena Jeppiaar.

ANNOUNCING EX-COM MEMBERS OF THE YEAR 2014-2015:

The excom members for the academic year 2014-2015 was announced by Nitin Tom ,Secretary of ISA student branch of Jeppiaar Engineering College of the academic year 2013-2014.

The ex-com members are:

President - Mukesh

Vice President - Jayashree.L

Secretary - Raghul.R

Treasurer - Aashish Murali

Newsletter Editor - Priscilla Gomes

Membership Chair - Gowtham.V

Event Chair - Swetha.S

Vivek Venkatasubramaniam

Atchai Vignesh

Philomina.J.J.C

MOTIVATIONAL TALK BY MRS. RAJJAMAL:

Mrs. Rajammal was called upon to begin her session. Mrs. Rajammal began her motivational speech for the students. She taught the students about time management and how to build one's personality. She interacted with the students on how to think ahead and be successful. The session was beneficial for all the students.

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

The electronics and instrumentation department in association with international society of automation conducted a faculty development program for all the teaching faculties of Jeppiaar Engineering College. The session was held by Mrs. Rajammal a well renowned motivational speaker and president awardee.

Mrs. Rajammal held a talk on “ New teaching methodoligies for engineering students –a new perspective “. The session was well received by all the faculties who attended the seminar.

Certificates were given for all the participants of the Faculty Development Program.